Chapter 1 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

There were fourteen potions on the shelf, all of the bottles without labels. She knew one of them was the one she needed, but there wasn't much time to figure out which was which. She frantically glanced over her shoulder. She grabbed the closest one and began to drink it, hoping desperately she picked the right bottle.

Chapter 2 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

Boy, was she wrong.

She had grabbed the bottle with the sleeping potion, and the world began to vividly swirl around her. "Damn it," the huntress said, cursing under her breath before falling to the ground.

Chapter 3 by SaintSayaka

When she woke up, her arms were locked in a complicated flurry of chains and locks. She tried to fight against them, fruitlessly. She was as good as caught.

Well, there would be one person who would love to hear that. She expected his arrival in three, two...
